The dynamic and ever-evolving landscape of globalization has profoundly reshaped the sociopolitical and economic dimensions of nations across the globe. As countries become increasingly interconnected, the importance of constitutional education has grown as a means of preparing individuals to navigate and respond to these changes effectively. Constitutional education equips citizens with a deep understanding of their fundamental rights and responsibilities while fostering critical thinking and active participation in governance. This is especially critical in facing the challenges brought about by globalization, such as cultural homogenization, the erosion of sovereignty, and growing socio-economic disparities [2]

Globalization has intensified the interplay between local and global political systems, creating a need for citizens who are not only aware of their constitutional framework but also possess the skills to engage in transnational discourse. Constitutional education, therefore, serves as a crucial tool in empowering individuals to uphold democratic values, ensure accountability in governance, and advocate for justice in an increasingly complex global environment [3]

Furthermore, constitutional education promotes resilience against threats such as the proliferation of misinformation and the manipulation of public opinion, which have been exacerbated by advancements in digital technology. By fostering an informed and participative citizenry, constitutional education contributes to the development of a robust democratic culture that can withstand these challenges and adapt to globalization's demands [4]

This study explores the role of constitutional education in addressing the multifaceted challenges of globalization, emphasizing its significance in enhancing civic engagement, strengthening democratic institutions, and preserving cultural identities. It also highlights practical strategies and case studies demonstrating the effective implementation of constitutional education in diverse contexts.

Constitutional Education in Facing The Challeges of Globalization

In essence right is reference base on something attached Where its nature is very deep and fundamental , which is not can disturbed sued by anyone . Because of this the related close with obligations that must be fulfilled capable implemented in a way firm . While understanding about obligation all something on reference the basics that must be capable implemented and achieved within reach goals and ideals , which are of a nature capable balanced and harmonious with life humanity between rights and obligations .

So with so it is said in a way firmly , when later rights and obligations capable walk side by side so goals , targets, and target will reach position harmony on rights and obligations that are implemented with Good as citizens with effort collaboration perception about awareness will rights and obligations .

It is expected every individual as citizens must capable implementing and fulfilling need in accordance with applicable rules and regulations , as a country of law where everything something own consequences and must capable accountable .

As it goes along time development globalization and technology on his progress No can prevented , as well as the increasing significance of educational programs year experiencing changes to more direction good inside adjustment from changes of the times. Until implementation policies implemented in the world of education . So there is education constitution give awareness on outlook about identification conformity on importance ideology and its practice in a nation For reach level decent and sustainable welfare .

So that education constitution here considered become reference base on need base in increase source Power capable human empowered each other tall and have quality very capable quantity on series changes that occur With existence education constitution capable give contribution real because the more Good in care and practice teak self inside inherit values Sublime nationality that has There is from generation to generation next which one will be next capable referring to to base perspective law and values a suitable life within the consequences

In the implementation education constitution For give very great involvement and influence normal on giving awareness and understanding on rights and obligations constitutional must capable given in a way direct and continuous like through socialization counseling and so on which must be collaborated by various parties and circles , until government , for apply customized policy with need society . So that public capable feel or increased welfare until essence his rights capable felt in a way directly , with implementation education constitution in the form of education character .

Compliance implementation from role education constitution later will bring change to direction strong thinking in generations young so that they own base understanding and awareness on rights and obligations constitutional must capable run so that No Easy affected or divided One The same other essence This based on on existence involvement from participation the public which will later capable strengthen part understanding from regulation legislation as base basis and reference So that later in implementation formation law and run law on the execution capable walk with fluent .

Then the position participation public become urgency the most important thing in realm category from the bargaining process that must be capable carried out and implemented by the community with to form law . So that later will existence involvement from public give decent space , for interest in a way general No interest in a way personal or group certain . So that with existence education constitution capable minimize and avoid generation young on behavior negative like behavior corrupt , destructive behavior since early on unity and oneness Where easy pitted against each other sheep .

So that or existence understanding practice from awareness education constitution become context main , inside runway life For hold on firm in rights and obligations . Because we know that education become right base from every individuals and rights constitutional must capable given by the community without except with collaboration protection and respect on its fulfillment . With so it is said on existence education constitution make prefix from change substance to more direction Good on education reform For looking at the future a capable nation made into as base right constitutional from inhabitant his country.

4. CONCLUSIONS
